

ADOX ELECTRA 2 - Flash

Characteristics and functions

This flash with folding parable was produced in 1954. Made in Germany.
Use PF-1 type lamps.

This specimen does not have a gray closing cover.

The synchro-cable has its own housing under the parabola, when it is not used.

On the top of the flash there is a button with a transparent green cover for the test.

The red button located at the rear, above the working distance / diaphragm table, is used to eject the used bulb.

The power supply is provided by a 22.5V Duracell MN122 battery or similar.

Weight 65g. battery not included.

Dimensions: 48x112mm. - 120mm. is the diameter of the open parabola.

