3. G. I. Joe's Mae West life jacket is draped over his shoulders as shown in illustration #4. The straps are hooked together in front underneath the Mae West and the front of the Mae West is snapped together. See illustration #4.

4. Put on G. I. Joe's flight helmet and hook up the oxygen mask as shown in illustration #5. The sun visor on the helmet is moved up or down by sliding the visor button as shown in illustration #5.

Illustration #5 also shows G. I. Joe fully dressed as a fighter pilot. Tuck the oxygen tube under the Mae West as in illustration #5.

INSTRUCTIONS G. I. JOE PARACHUTE (continued)

2. Place G. I. Joe face down on a table or ground. The parachute should be spread out as shown in illustration #2. Make sure the shroud lines are straight out and not tangled. The cloth part of the parachute should be folded over once from each side as shown in illustration #3.

Illustration #3.

Illustration #4.

3. Starting at the top of the parachute, fold it over and over upon itself about 4 or 5 times as shown in illustration #4. Fold the parachute only as far as the shroud lines.

Illustration #5.

4. Hold the folded parachute so that the shroud lines are not tangled. Place the parachute inside the parachute pack on top of the shroud lines. See illustration #5.

Illustration #6.

5. Close the cover of the parachute pack and bring the rip cord over the cover. Keep cover closed by pulling on the rip cord ring. See illustration #6.

6. Hold G. I. Joe face down in your hand while pulling down the rip cord ring to keep the cover closed. See illustration #7.

Illustration #7.

7. If there is a wind or breeze blowing, stand facing into the wind or breeze. If there is no wind or breeze, face in any direction. Using an underhand motion, throw G. I. Joe up as high as you can while letting go of the rip cord ring. See illustration #8.

8. Your G. I. Joe should float gently down to earth.

Illustration #8.

With a little practice you will be able to get perfect parachute jumps every time.

INSTRUCTIONS G.I. JOE™ PARACHUTE

1. Put G. I. Joe into his parachute harness by slipping G. I. Joe's legs through the leg loops. Make sure the chest clip is in front on G. I. Joe's chest. The shoulder straps are slipped over his shoulders and hooked on to the chest clip. See illustration #1 for proper method of putting on harness.
