

POLAROID Land Camera Model 80B (Highlander)

Year of construction :	1959-1961
Film type:	Roll-film
Shutter :	2-speed everset rotary-leaf design; 1/25" and 1/100",B
Meter :	Exposure set by standard EV (Exposure Value) scale.
Diaphragm:	f/8.8, /11, /16, /22
Times :	1/25" and 1/100"
Lens:	100mm, f/8.8 - 3-element glass
Synchronisation:	M-sync via Polaroid "hot shoe"
Self-timer:	-
Focusing:	Scale focus by rotating lens front-element, no rangefinder
Characteristics:	Rigid viewfinder on top of camera Self-erecting Bellows design
Accessories:	-
Note:	The 80B model is identical to the 80A model except in the cutter bar and film release switch.
Estimated Production:	175,000 – 300,000