

POLAROID Land Camera Model 900

Year of construction:	1960-1963
Film type:	Roll-film – Type 42 (200iso), 47 (3000iso)
Shutter :	Electrically controlled, 1/12 - 1/600, plus Bulb
Meter :	Automatic programmed exposure by CdS cell; manual control also possible by EV settings
Diaphragm:	f./8.8, /11, /16, /22, /32, /45
Times:	1/12", 1/25", 1/50", 1/100", 1/250", 1/600" and B
Lens:	130mm, f/8.8, 3-element glass
Flas synchronisation:	M-sync (Polaroid "hot shoe"), X-sync via bi-pin connector
Self-timer:	-
Focusing:	Manual with distance scale (3,5" to Infinity)
Characteristics:	Single-window viewfinder/rangefinder with projected frame-lines and automatic parallax compensation.
Accessories:	-
Note:	First electrically-controlled shutter. Polished steel body with grey textured covering
Estimated Production:	450,000 – 650,000