

POLAROID Land Camera Pronto!

Year of construction:	1976-1977
Film type:	SX-70 (Color film only- 10 prints)
Shutter:	Electronic - Programmed automatic exposure
Meter:	CdS
Diaphragm:	f/14.6.
Times:	From 10sec. to 1/175sec.
Lens:	116mm f/9.4 – single element lens* (plastic)
Synchronisation:	Built-in Flashbar socket for flash. Accessory electronic flashes were also available.
Self-timer:	No
Focusing:	Minimum focus 3ft.
Characteristics:	SLR (Single-Lens Reflex) camera. Black plastic body. Exposure compensation dial with range of -2/+2 stops ("Lighten/Darken" control).
Accessories:	Nylon strap.
Note:	* Lens on late-production models is color-coated. The film cartridge also contains the battery for operating the camera
Estimated Production:	First non-folding SX-70 camera. -