

POLAROID Land Camera SX-70 TimeZero Autofocus

Year of construction:	1981
Film type:	Time Zero SX-70 (Color film only- 10 prints)
Shutter:	Electronic - Programmed automatic exposure
Meter:	CdS
Diaphragm:	From f/8 to f/22. Smaller apertures possible when flash is used
Times:	From 10sec. to 1/175sec
Lens:	116mm f/8 4-elements (glass)
Synchronisation:	Built-in Flashbar socket for flash. Accessory electronic flashes were also available. "fill-flash" capability (using Flashbars) Auto flash exposure based on focus distance. Max flash distance 20ft. (6 meters)
Self-timer:	No
Focusing:	Autofocus; uses Polaroid Sonar AF system. Minimum focus: 10.4 inches (25cm.); AF "preview" available before exposure is made. Full manual focus is also possible.
Characteristics:	SLR (Single-Lens Reflex) viewing and focusing. Low-light warning in viewfinder. Chrome-plated plastic body with genuine leather covering. Exposure compensation dial with range of -2/+2 stops ("Lighten/Darken" control).
Accessories:	Leather carrying case. Tripod socket and neck strap lugs.
Note:	The film cartridge also contains the battery for operating the camera.
Estimated Production:	-